ATTEMPT TO LYNCH
ALLEGED MURDERER

DeLAND, Nov. 24—An attempt was made early last night to lynch Leroy Members, the Lake Helen negro charged with attempted criminal assault on a little white girl in that town. Members was taken back to Lake Helen in the afternoon and given a preliminary hearing before Justice Charles Marshall. He was recognized by the little girl and by others, but made the claim that he simply desired to ask her a question, and that he did not touch her. Deputy Sheriff Stone saw trouble coming and hastened back to DeLand with his prisoner after he had been committed to jail on the charge of assault with attempt to rape.

About 9:30 last night between 25 and 50 men gathered at the Volusia county jail, notified the sheriff, who had just retired, that Deputy Sheriff Melton was there with a prisoner to be placed in jail. The sheriff came down stairs, found out who was present, relocked the door and again went upstairs, talking to the crowd from the window of the sheriff's residence. He explained that his wife had undergone a serious operation in Jacksonville, had just come home from the hospital, and that any disturbance might prove fatal to her. He requested the crowd to disperse. The sheriff then fired his revolver from the window to attract attention, and the crowd dispersed. Members has been taken to another jail to prevent trouble.

The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning at the Peniel Baptist church. Interment will be in Peniel cemetery, under direction of Mooney & Davis.

AMUSEMENTS.

Great Spectacular at Arcade.

Maurice Tournier's great Paramount-Artaft special production, "Sporting Life," will be the attraction at the Arcade today. The management seldom makes a personal recommendation of a film, but in this instance backs up this great photoplay with a personal guarantee, asking that all who see it and are not enthusiastic about it appear at the box office and receive the price of admission back.

This is one of the most expensive pictures that the Arcade has yet screened, but the stamp of "Special" insures it to be of the very highest character.

Ethel Clayton Tomorrow.

The weapons by which Ethel Clayton wins her husband back in "Women's Weapons," the new Paramount picture in which she is starred, which is to be shown at the Arcade tomorrow, are not the same as those employed to win her screen following and yet in a sense they are the same. They are, after all, the weapons with which Eros attacks his victims; the lure of sweetness, womanly charm.

Coming Attractions.

Coming attractions at The Arcade show some of the greatest photo-plays ever filmed, headed by "The Miracle Man," which has broken all records since its release, "Male and Female," The great DeMille de luxe production, David Griffiths latest production, released subsequent to Broken Blossoms, "Scarlet Days," Charles Ray in "The Egg Crate Wallop," William S. Hart in "John Pettycoat," "Twenty-Three and a Half Hours Leave," and all the latest Paramount Artaft releases. No city in the world will get better pictures than will be shown Palatkans at The Arcade.

Elsie Ferguson Wednesday.

Elsie Ferguson, supported by Eugene O'Brien and a star cast, will be the attraction Wednesday at The Arcade in "Under the Greenwood Tree," from the play by the same name which had such a successful run in New York.

Mrs. Vernon Castle Thanksgiving.

A treat is in store for patrons of the Arcade on Thanksgiving when Mrs. Vernon Castle will be shown in Robert W. Chambers gripping story "The Firing Line."

Most of this picture was made in Florida, at West Palm Beach, and is said to be one of the best pieces of work Mrs. Castle ever did. It is a Paramount-Artaft Special, which is guaranteed of the sumptuous style in which it is made. The cast is superb.
